MEET THE CAST

Lucas Brady- Michael (Nov 28, Dec 1, 3, 4, 6 matinee & evening, 9, 11, 12, 15, 17, 20 matinee, 22)

Lucas couldn't be more excited to be playing Michael Hobbs. He began his theater journey in the children's chorus with Center Stage Theatre's inaugural show, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Since then, he played the Turkey Boy in A Christmas Carol and Jafar in Aladdin Jr., both with CST. Lucas will turn 14 a week after closing—so this show feels like one big early birthday celebration. Offstage, Lucas enjoys reading, drawing, discovering random facts to surprise people with, and constructing detailed LEGO creations.

Julie Brinton - Deb

Julie Brinton is bursting with Christmas cheer to play Deb in Center Stage Theatre's Elf the Musical! She's thrilled to spread holiday joy through laughter, music, and a little North Pole sparkle.

Julie's past roles include Mrs. Pearce (My Fair Lady), Glowworm (James and the Giant Peach), Annette (Hole in the Sky), Mrs. Fezziwig (A Christmas Carol), and Martha Watson (White Christmas).

Offstage, she loves traveling, spending time with her ten nieces and nephews, and enjoying Sweet Chili Doritos.

🎵 "Let's make it sparklejollytwinklejingle!" 🎵

Bryson Esplin - Ensemble

Bryson is thrilled to be in his first show with Center Stage Theater! He would like to thank Act it Out children's theater for instilling his love of the art, the Sugar Salem Drama department for turning it into an obsession, his wonderful parents who are his biggest fans, and his aunt Merrilee who is still singing show stoppers. Thanks so much for coming and I hope you enjoy the show! Love you bye!

Elder Skyler Hinton -Buddy the Elf

Skyler Hinton is thrilled to bring Buddy to life in Elf the Musical at Center Stage Theatre.

Previous roles at Center Stage include Perchik in Fiddler on the Roof, Cornelius in Hello Dolly!, and serving as the understudy for Corny Collins in Hairspray. A lifelong lover of singing and storytelling, Skyler is grateful for every opportunity to perform and to share the stage with so many talented friends.

Skyler currently serves as a missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and is thankful for the support that allows him to pursue his passion for uplifting, joyful theatre. He hopes Elf brings audiences the same warmth and Christmas cheer that it has brought him.

Emmalee Kanow-Swing and Production Assistant

Emmalee is excited to be part of her 4th show at Center Stage. This is her 3rd show as a swing and 2nd on the production crew. This show has challenged her physical and mentally, but she is so grateful for the growth she has experienced. Outside of the theater, Emmalee enjoys hanging out with her friends, chilling at home or outdoor activities.

Rachel Law- Ensemble

Rachel has enjoyed performing her whole life and in many different places. She's excited to be join the CST family for the first time in this show!

Britin Matthews- Ensemble

Britin is thrilled to be spreading Christmas cheer by singing loud for all to hear! She's been doing musical theater since age 9 and has love every minute since! She is so overjoyed for this opportunity to return to Center Stage Theater for another magical production! Most recently, Britin appeared as a Dynamite in Hairspray and behind the scenes as a Mic Technician for School of Rock! Fueled by equal parts ambition, caffeine, and candy canes, Britin keeps her peppermint powered energy going in her free time as Dance Captain for her high schools show choir, as a dance instructor/content creator at Elite Studios, or crocheting something for her friends! She's so excited to share the stage this holiday season with so many talented and amazing people and hopes you find this show as Sparklejollytwinklejingley as she does!

Lynda Meissner - Ensemble

Lynda learned to love music early in life singing acapella in the car with her sisters. Her smart parents encouraged singing to keep her and her sisters occupied (and argument free) in the car. She found her love for dance and theater at age 10 and was "hooked". She found it was an amazing way to love others by bringing creativity, laughter, and sometimes difficult feelings to the stage. In addition to theater, she is a nurse, fitness instructor, wife and mom of an amazing family. Lynda thanks the Lord for giving her the talent and the opportunity to share with others.

AnnaKate Newton - Ensemble

AnnaKate Newton is beyond excited to be in Elf the Musical!

She has loved theater since seeing her older brother in shows at the age of 8! Some of her favorite shows she has been apart of include Into the Woods, Cinderella, and Hello Dolly! Offstage, she enjoys reading, taking naps, and annoying her sister!!

This is AnnaKate's second Center Stage show and she couldn't be more happy to help spread Christmas cheer by singing loud for all to hear!

Jessie Nichols - Ensemble

Jessie Nichols is delighted to work with Center Stage Theatre on this festive production! She is pulling double-duty: appearing in the Ensemble, while also responsible for bringing the holiday looks to life as the Hair and Makeup Designer. Past credits include performing in Hairspray and designing for School of Rock. She extends her love and gratitude to the entire production team, and especially her assistant Lori, who also happens to be her beautiful mother. Enjoy the show!

Norrah Nielsen - Jovie

Norrah is extremely grateful to be returning to the CST stage this holiday season! She loves theater and Christmas and she is thrilled to be able to combine the two together for you tonight. You may recognize Norrah as “Judy Haynes” in last year’s production of White Christmas, or you might have seen her in West Yellowstone, spending two magical summers at The Playmill Theatre. The rare occasions when Norrah isn’t performing on stage, you can find her drinking diet coke, doing a jigsaw puzzle, or creating social media content! Norrah is a student at BYU-Idaho pursuing a Communications degree. She hopes to have a career in social media marketing. Norrah loves theater more than anything in the world and is so happy to be sharing it with you here at Center Stage! She hopes she can help bring some sparklejollytwinklejingle into your lives, and remind you who and what Christmas is really about. Enjoy the show! Muah!

Don Pollard - Santa

Theater training began early in life for Don Pollard, as the son of a father who traveled the South Pacific performing with the military theater group and performing as the king in “The King and I. Don has played roles from Scrooge to Bill Sikes, performing in community theater for over 30 years. Other notable roles include, the wizard in “Wizard of Oz”, Felzig in “Drowsy Chaperone”, Ephraim in “Seven Brides for Seven Brothers”, the general in “White Christmas” and the narrator in “The Christmas Story”.

Magic was Don’s career, performing and entertaining for small groups with parlor magic to large scale corporate and school events. He has performed throughout Idaho, and also in Nevada, Utah and Spain.

Don is looking forward to performing in the 2025 Christmas Show at Center Stage Theater, “ELF”.

Chesney Rathbun - Ensemble

Chesney knows potatoes better than most (he's a potato engineer by day), adores his cats more than anything (even if he has to keep a box for them to poop in in the back room), and loves a good life side quest. He's currently remodeling a (former) hoarder home, would take a coffee iv every morning if a doctor would approve it, and is exceptionally grateful for the chance to perform with such a talented cast in such a fun show. Merry Christmas you filthy animals!

Eliza Jane Ritchie - Ensemble

Eliza Jane Ritchie has lived in Idaho Falls almost her entire life and recently graduated from Idaho Falls High School. In January, she will begin serving a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Lubbock, Texas. Eliza has performed in many productions, including portraying Grace Banker in The Hello Girls! and a nun in Center Stage's production of Sister Act. When she's not on stage, Eliza loves hosting parties, quoting movies in everyday conversation, and watching crime documentaries.

Ali Rockwood - Emily Hobbs

Ali is a wife, mother of two, an architectural drafter/designer, and a lover of Flamin' Hot Cheetos. She has a deep love for community theatre, and has loved being heavily involved in acting and directing in the Idaho Falls area the last six years. Some of her favorite acting roles have been Gertrude McFuzz in "Seussical" (Ammon Arts Community Theatre, 2020), Adelaide in "Guys and Dolls" (Sounds Summer Musicals, 2022), Martha in "Lamb of God" (Witness Music, 2023), Morticia Addams in "Addams Family" (Ammon Arts Community Theatre, 2023), Kitty in "The Drowsy Chaperone" (IFYAC, 2024), and Betty Haynes in "White Christmas" (Center Stage, 2024). She loves being on the stage, and being behind the scenes and creating the big picture with set design is just as fulfilling and exciting for her. She is so grateful to be able to be playing mom and wife to her actual, real life son and husband. She hopes you enjoy the show and have a wonderful Christmas season!

Chase Rockwood - Walter Hobbs

Chase Rockwood has officially traded out the KISS face paint and mesh top (🤪) as Ned in School of Rock for a business suit and "Bah humbug" attitude as Walter in Elf! This is Chase's sixth production at Center Stage. While theater is his passion, doing it with his family is what truly brings him joy. In fact, His wife Ali (Emily) and son Crosby (Michael) will transform with him from the Rockwood family to the Hobbs family! Not to be forgotten, their daughter Amelia, who starred in White Christmas with them last year, plays the violent video game seeking child! Chase teaches religion at BYU Idaho, loves BYU sports and hasn't met a cheese he didn't like. Merry Christmas!

Crosby Rockwood - Michel Hobbs
(Nov 29 matinee & evening, Dec 2, 5, 8,
10, 13 matinee & evening, 16, 18, 19, 20
evening, 23)

Crosby returns to Center Stage for his third production (Joseph, Matilda, School of Rock) —this time as Michael in Elf, where he acts opposite his actual parents. Yes, that means he still can't get away from them... even in a fictional family. Crosby has also performed in several other community shows and, when he's not rehearsing, he's usually playing video games, devouring graphic novels, sketching, or blasting 80s music like he was born in the wrong decade. Enjoy the show!

Dakota Short-Swing and Backstage tech is thrilled to be participating in her eighth show at Center Stage Theater. Both on stage and behind the scenes, Dakota loves to be involved in the theater world. A skilled performer and logistically capable technician, she's always ecstatic to help. Dakota has done ballroom dance for 14 years, and has worked backstage and on stage at Center Stage since Christmas Carol in 2024. She loves it here, and can't wait to enjoy the Christmas season with this incredibly talented cast and crew.

Cason Smithson- Store Manager Santa understudy

Cason is thrilled to play the funny and lovable Store Manager and to understudy as Santa Claus! Elf marks his third production at Center Stage Theater. Previous roles include Sweaty Eddie in Sister Act and understudy for the Ghost of Christmas Present in A Christmas Carol. When he's not spreading Christmas cheer on stage, Cason is wrestling his four kids, tackling escape room board games with his wife, or doing anything he can to make people smile. He's grateful to share the stage with such a talented cast and thanks his family for their endless love and support.

Lindsey Stein-Ensemble

Lindsey is excited to join Center Stage Theater for this jolly production of Elf! Lindsey's recent credits include Katherine in Ammon Arts Community Theater's Newsies (2025) Martha in The Secret Garden (2024) and Martha in Arsenic and Old Lace (2023). She considers herself incredibly lucky to have a partner who enjoys theater as well - her fiance Bryce proposed to her onstage this summer! During the school year, you can find Lindsey in her classroom teaching 8th grade English. In the summer, she loves swimming, camping, and inciting chaos with her adorable nieces and nephew. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Benjamin Strock- Buddy understudy (Dec. 2, 9, 13 matinee, 19, 22) Ensemble
Benjamin is so ecstatic to mark his eighth show at Center Stage with Elf! A native of South Carolina, Benjamin is now a junior at Thunder Ridge High School. Some of his favorites roles include Nicely-Nicely in Guys and Dolls, Antonio in the Marriage of Figaro, and Larry the Lobster in Spongebob. Benjamin is a state champion of the Idaho Music Educator's Association solo and ensemble competition, where he placed 1st in the state for a Baritone Vocal Solo. Outside of theater, Benjamin loves to practice piano, hang out with his friends, and drink Diet Coke. Benjamin sends his love to his mom and dad, Julia and Brian, his sister, Olivia, and all of his family on the East Coast who support from afar. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Scott Thompson - Mr. Greenway
Scott is a former broadcaster who worked in radio in the Idaho Falls in the 1980s. Scott retired from teaching a few years back and now is pursuing new interests in theater and entertainment.

Gayle Tingey- Ms. Clause

Gayle has enjoyed a lifetime of performing, directing, choreographing, teaching, and learning, supported by a BA in dance, theater, and secondary education from Brigham Young University, and an MA in theater from Idaho State University. Regular audience members will recognize her from other roles she's portrayed as this is her seventh show at Center Stage Theater. She is elated to be back on her favorite stage taking on the role of Mrs. Santa Claus and would like to wish everyone a season full of Christmas cheer!

Luis Tobias-Jemmett- Ensemble

Elf is Luis' sixth show, and third Christmas season, at Center Stage. He enjoys performing for the community of Idaho Falls and everyone who visits from near and far. Luis is a Texas native residing in Rigby and working for the City of Ammon. He's excited to be part of yet another great production!

Addie Waldron- Jovie Understudy (Dec. 2, 10, 13 matinee, 15, 19)

Addie is so excited to be in another Center Stage Theatre production!!! She loves getting to perform with all of her friends, horror movies, and chicken strips. Addie is so grateful for the relationships she has made at Center Stage, one of which is with her fiancé who she met during Sister Act. She hopes that Center Stage brings you as much happiness as it has brought her.

Kameron White - Store Manager

Kameron White is thrilled to be part of Elf the Musical! A passionate performer with a love for bringing joy to the stage, Kameron has previously appeared in a variety of local theatre productions and community events. When not performing, Kameron enjoys connecting with others through games and service projects. Kameron would like to thank family, friends, and the production team for their support and holiday cheer!

MEET THE CREW

Corey Choules - Music Director

Corey has been a musician since the age of 2 when she won her first talent competition. She found her calling! She went on to get her BA at Idaho State University, and her MA in Instructional Technology and Design. She taught music in the Pocatello Elementary Schools for 29 years, and enjoyed greatly the satisfaction gotten from helping students love music as much as she does. She recently retired. Corey has vocal training, but her first love is piano. She has consulted with many voice and piano students. She has been a frequent music director for most of the shows here at Center Stage, and we are so lucky to have her help. She lives in Pocatello with her husband Todd, of 42 years, and when she is not spending time with her 5 children, or 20 grandchildren, she loves to read and quilt.

Chelsie Brady- Costume Design

Chelsie got her theater costuming start with Center Stage Theatre's inaugural season, helping with Joseph and then solo costuming Seven Brides for Seven Brothers (with help from her incredible mom, Corey Choules). Although she is somewhat new to musical theater, she began costuming professionally for a couple of local dance studios in 2021. Chelsie opened a successful Etsy shop about a decade earlier, selling all sorts of sewn, crocheted, knitted, and felted items, mostly in the newborn photography prop world. Her designs have been all over the world— a couple of them even being used in celebrity photo shoots.

Chelsie lives in Chubbuck with her husband, Mike, and their five beautiful and talented kids. She has found a wonderful and welcoming community in Center Stage Theatre and is so grateful for the creative opportunities she has been given.

Justin DaBell -Director

Justin is the main owner here at Center Stage, and he wears many hats. He has directed Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Sister Act, A Christmas Carol, Music Man, Matilda, and Hello Dolly! He loves to perform, and has been cast in many lead roles, most recently he played Edna in Hairspray.

He considers it his privilege to direct such talented actors and musicians to bring this story to life. He hopes you will enjoy this fun show.

Chandler Dye -

Head of Marketing and Strategic Partnerships

Chandler is honored to serve as the Head of Marketing and Strategic Partnerships for Center Stage Theatre and was thrilled to help bring the magic of Elf the Musical to life this season! A lifelong lover of theatre, Chandler's passion for the arts began in childhood and continues to shape both his personal and professional life. As a dedicated business owner in Southeast Idaho, he brings creativity, vision, and a deep appreciation for storytelling to everything he does.

For this production of Elf, Chandler was in charge of spreading holiday cheer throughout the lobby and crafting festive marketing that captured the show's joyful spirit. For Chandler, Center Stage is more than just a theatre—it's a second home where community, creativity, and connection come to life... and where the holiday magic shines bright all season long!

Emily Fairbank -Front of House Manager

Emily Fairbank lived her dream earlier this year playing the role of Dolly Levi. She is so grateful for the chance to work with so many wonderful talented people at Center Stage. As a seasoned veteran of the performing arts she loves to share a good story. Emily is a happy wife and the proud mother of five beautiful children. They love their Center Stage family and have appeared in many shows together over the last 3 seasons. Emily is excited to continue her involvement with this theater. She has found a passion of helping wherever she can there. She has dipped into set building, painting, sewing, choreography, stage managing and now the Front of House Manager. As the original Emily, she is here to stay!

John Hanley- Mural designer and artist
Jon Hanley is a nationally recognized political cartoonist. His work has garnered international awards and has been published in all 50 states. In his new career as theater set painter/designer, Hanley has painted over 170 shows in several theaters throughout the northwest. He is multiple recipient ware winner from the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts for his work on Fiddler on the Roof (2004) and Guys and Dolls (2010).

Terry Hansen - Set Builder/Theater Carpenter

Terry has been building set for Center Stage for well over a year and a half now. He says that every show has a new challenge and looks forward to figuring out how to overcome. He enjoys getting to know some of the cast in each show and likes their input, especially on things that will make their experience better. If you are interested in helping, he likes having an extra hand, when possible.

Red Johnson - Backstage Tech/ Set Construction

After taking a break to perform on her home stage, Red is returning as Backstage Tech for her eighth show at Center Stage! As a former classically trained dancer, she is no stranger to the stage. And as a former film student, she is elated to extend her production talents backstage. She is honored to be a part of the production crew at Center Stage. And has enjoyed working with Terry, Neil, and the Paint Crew to help bring these wonderful stories to life. She thanks her stage moms: Whitney, Jo, and Jeanne for being strong supports in her theater journey. Other than set construction, stage lighting design is one of her biggest passions. Red loves being known as the first person in history to audition for tech!

Megan Perry - Props Master

This is Megan's first show that she has been involved in that she's not on stage for! Her first introduction to working on props came with the run of School of Rock, and she had so much fun that she's back for more! Her creativity is usually utilized in her journal or cookies, so she's loved having another outlet. She can't wait for people to see all the hard work put into this show and to explore this new side of musical theater that is production.

Aria Short - Backstage Manager

Returning from a short break, Aria is excited to be helping backstage once more. They're a long term member of our stage crew, having helped with most our shows since our 2023 production of "A Christmas Carol", including "Wizard of Oz", "Hello, Dolly!", and "Hairspray". Wishing you a Happy Holidays, they hope you enjoy our production of "Elf: The Musical"!

Steve Todd - Sound Engineer

Steve started audio production in the early 80s when a good friend needed someone to run the sound for his new rock band. Soon they were traveling the Wasatch Front scene, performing in clubs, bars and universities in the region. Life then took a different direction after he married Jeni, a beautiful girl who had stolen his heart, and he went on with a different career he loved and to support his family. Shortly after relocating to the Idaho Falls area in 2007, Jeni had a role in a play and Steve helped out with sound and lighting; and has continued to support the vocal performing arts since. He started at Center Stage with the play Hairspray.
